

International Migration and Labor Markets

The subject of the course is the patterns and processes that occur when people are migrating, also the employment of migrants in different countries

The scope of course is 5 credits 150 hours, including 30 hours of lectures and 16 hours of practical training

The period of course's study:
4th year

The aim of the course : to provide students with an idea of the current state of migration processes, the rights and responsibilities of the migrant population, their employment in different countries of the world

INTERESTING FACTS

The Swedish model of labor market regulation is recognized as one of the most advanced in Europe, therefore the Ministry of Social Policy of Ukraine considers it necessary to take the experience of the State Employment Service of Sweden during the implementation of reforms in Ukraine.

The employees of this country are legally protected at a high level!

Unemployment is reduced thanks to 90% of financial support to motivate the unemployed to run their favorite business!

Topics of the course:

Topic 1. Socio-economic essence of migration in the world society

Topic 2. Research on international migration of population and its relationship with modern society

Topic 3. Labor migration as a leading type of international migration

Topic 4. Contemporary features of international labor migration. The essence and tendencies of development of the international labor market

Topic 5. Economic and socio-political consequences of international labor migration.

Topic 6. State migration policy formation in Ukraine and abroad. The role of the state in regulating migration processes

Topic 7. Legislative basis of regulation of international labor migration in Ukraine.

Topic 8. Legislative basis of regulation of international labor migration in different countries of the world.

Topic 9. Illegal labor migration in different countries of the world.

Topic 10. Features of the development of international intellectual migration

Topic 11. Monitoring the status of migrants' labor in different countries of the world