

International Information Law

The subject of the study course
- information relations as a separate group of social relations arising in the process of information circulation in the information sphere

The aim of the course is awareness of the value of the legal norms governing the search, obtaining, producing and disseminating information on an international scope

Information Law – interesting facts

Directive (EU) 2016/680 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 27 April 2016 on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data by competent authorities for the purposes of the prevention, investigation, detection or prosecution of criminal offences or the execution of criminal penalties, and on the free movement of such data

alse false fals
alse false fals
alse false fals
alse true fals
alse false fals
alse false fals
alse false fals

Media law refers to the legal regulation of culture, entertainment, broadcasting, telecommunications and advertising generally anything relating to digital and analogue media. This can include books, video, audio, photographs, graphics, software, databases, online publications and other content.

The Law of Ukraine “On Information ” asserts the rights of citizens of Ukraine to information, sets forth the legal principles of activities in the information sphere.

Topics of the course

- Topic 1. Legal definition of information, its kinds and the means of its protection.
- Topic 2. Information and modern technology.
- Topic 3. An influence of the information security to the other spheres of law.
- Topic 4. Data protection and freedom of information.
- Topic 5. Means of the information protection in Ukraine. Law on Information.
- Topic 6. The concept, subject and system of international information law.
- Topic 7. Principles and sources of international information law.
- Topic 8. Human and the citizen rights and freedoms under international information law
- Topic 9. Institute for the protection and unimpeded transfer of personal data.
- Topic 10. Freedom of information as an institute of international information law.
- Topic 11. International Legal Aspects of Internet Governance.
- Topic 12. International Media Law.
- Topic 13. Interstate relations in the information sphere.
- Topic 14. International legal cooperation in the field of information security.
- Topic 15. Information Law of the states